Attachment A

On or about October 5, 2019, Juan Antonio REYES-Hernandez attempted to enter the United States via the vehicle lane at the Hidalgo, Texas port of entry.

At primary inspection, the Customs and Border Protection Officer (CBPO) received a negative declaration for narcotics, weapons, and other items. The CBPO asked about REYES-Hernandez's travel plans and where he was going. REYES-Hernandez stated he was planning on shopping in McAllen, Texas. REYES-Hernandez also stated that he occasionally goes to San Antonio, Texas and showed that he possessed an I-94. REYES-Hernandez stated that he did not turn in his I-94 because it had not yet expired. The CBPO at primary discovered that REYES-Hernandez had made several crossings past the Falfurrias Border Patrol Checkpoint. REYES-Hernandez was then referred to secondary inspection.

At secondary inspection, the CBPO received a negative declaration for narcotics, weapons, and other items. A narcotic detection K-9 inspected the vehicle and alerted to the floor of the vehicle. CBPOs discovered several packages concealed under the carpet of the driver's side of the vehicle. While in secondary, REYES-Hernandez stated that he was going to San Antonio, Texas to drop off the vehicle. REYES-Hernandez was then detained. CBPOs conducted a Z-Portal scan of the vehicle and discovered several anomalies on the floor of the vehicle. A total of 13 bags were removed from compartments hidden on the floor of the vehicle. The bags contained a crystalized substance which field tested positive for the properties of methamphetamine and weighed a total of 22.68 kilograms.

Homeland Security Investigations (HSI) Special Agents (SA) Tanner D. Fullmer, Laron Smith, and HSI Task Force Officer (TFO) Jesus Cuellar interviewed REYES-Hernandez. REYES-Hernandez was provided with his Miranda Rights in writing and agreed to answer questions without the presence of an attorney. REYES-Hernandez stated the following in summary:

REYES-Hernandez admitted that he was going to be paid $5,000 to transport crystal methamphetamine (meth) to San Antonio, Texas. REYES-Hernandez picked up the meth in Monterrey, Mexico where it was hidden in compartments on the floor of his vehicle. REYES-Hernandez stated he crossed meth on two prior occasions and transported the meth once to Dallas, Texas and once to San Antonio, Texas. REYES-Hernandez stated he knew he was importing crystal meth into the United States and knew that it was hidden in the floor of his vehicle.
